The Best Of What We Are

We all dream of great deeds and high positions, away from the humdrum of ordinary life.
Yet success is not occupying a lofty place or doing conspicuous work;
it is being the best that is in you.
Rattling around in too big a job is worse than filling a small one to overflowing.
Dream, aspire by all means; but do not ruin the life you must lead by dreaming pipe dreams of the one you would like to lead.
Make the most of what you have and are.
Perhaps your trivial, immediate task is your one sure way of proving your mettle.
Do the thing near at hand,
and great things will come to your hand to be done.

"Hey, have you done the dedication yet?"
"Naw, I wasn't in the mood."
"Well, what are we gonna do?"
"Let's do something original — we could dedicate it to ourselves . . ."
"Yeah-naw, people might get the wrong idea."
"We gotta do something."
OOOK, what?"

Traditionally, the yearbook has been dedicated to one, possibly two people who the yearbook staff feel have done the most for the class. Although Mr. Meegan and Mrs. D'Amario have been an immense help to us throughout the year, we feel there are many others that should not be ignored. Thus, this book is dedicated to something that is important to every member of the class-friendship.

Be it teachers, family, pets, or other students, we all need friends. Where would we be if we didn't have that someone to turn to when we were down? The one who listened, gave advice, made you smile, and got you through it all when you were sure you would never make it. We'd like this yearbook to be a reminder of that. So every time you look at it, you will recall your friends from high school — the people who helped to make you the best of what you are.

POWDER PUFF

"LOOK! — There is mud on the football field."
It is November 30, 1978
It is the day for Powder Puff
(rah rah)
THERE IS LOTS OF MUD TO SLIP IN (and look stupid)
(rah UAG)
See the kick off!: slip in mud — fall on back
See ball sink in mud — See girls SLIDE after it.
-ooo-
Juniors score
(boo-hiss)
Watch senior girls push and shove
Look at the cheating
Listen to Mr. Petercuskie call penalties against Juniors
(YEAH)
See the CHEERLEADERS(?)
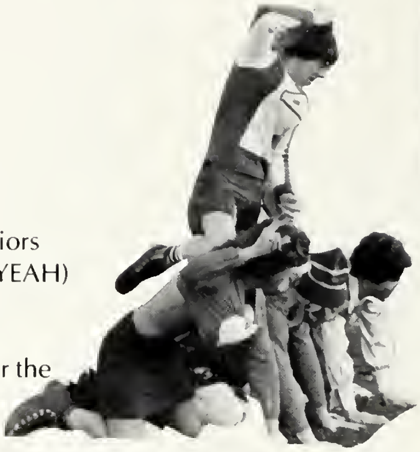
JUMP — yell — LAUGH
LOOK! — Julie Brickett is running with the ball (over the line)



RAH RAH RAH!
See seniors jump and scream
Score is tied
SLIP SQUISH SLIDE WET GRIME SKUM (yuk)
See; the ball is dirty, the girls are silly
(They are playing tackle football)
-ooo-
Look! — Kim Eddy has the ball now
She is running away from the people TOUCHDOWN!!!!!
(rah rah)
See Mr. Petercuskie smile
See the senior coaches smile
See Kim smile
LOOK! — The senior girls are going wild!
(again)
Watch seniors win once more 12-6
(Whoopee)

Guest List

KISS (in person, and ready to roll')
One cute little Whopper (she was in good taste)
Two showgirls (and were they ever showy!)
A sailor (he came in on the tide)
A WWII pilot (he was looking for his plane)
Hells Angels (and their low-riding Big Wheels)
A pimp and his hooker (they dropped in from Boston)
Scarlet O'Hara (she didn't give a damn!)
An Indian (his loincloth looked drafty)
The Cosmonauts (they were extremely spaced)
Two expectant mothers (where were their husbands?)
A bumblebee (she was buzzin' all night)
Three blind mice (they couldn't see)
Tarzan and Jane (they had no trouble communicating)
The sheik, chic band who did a terrific job!
Thanks to the ghouls who arranged this event, Chris Wyner and Kathy Wallace.

Halloween Party

CHRISTMAS PARTY

On December 20 in the year of our lord
We wound our way up to Ferncroft's door.
Despite the threats of stormy weather
We all attended, cuz we're better together.

Moods were high, and necklines were low
As the dim lights set the holiday glow.
The party commenced at 8:00
and everyone was ready to rock.

"Heist", the band had a different style mellow, old fashioned, but mostly wild.
We danced 'til we could dance no more
Dick Dussault even hit the floor.

'Santa Bus' granted us all our wishes and mistletoe granted us our kisses!
The senior class could not be tamed
when the band played it's final song —
No, not "Stairway to Heaven" or — "Nights in White Satin" or —
"Color my World" or —
"I'm Dreaming of a White Christmas;
BUT —
Erik Clapton's "Cocaine"!!

FROLICS!

WHERE: Masconomet, John Repucci's, Iris Watts
WHEN: December 8 & 9, 1978
HOW: We don't know!
WHY: Why not?

Ten years from now as you're casually thumbing through your High School Yearbook, you happen to open to the Frolics Page . . . BREAK OPEN A BOTTLE OF WINE: AND SHARE IT WITH A FRIEND . . . What are you thinking? . . . Do you even remember that Frolics was the biggest senior event? . . . That it made you realize just how close Graduation was? . . .

And if you remember that much, do you remember skits? . . . The best ones like: "MEN!", "FASHION SHOW", "ROLL CALL", "WILD AND CRAZY GUYS", "GREASED LIGHTNING", or "THE TRUTH OF BODY BUILDING"!

Think back . . . Remember when someone's skirt fell off in Girls Chorus Line? . . . Or the reactions of the girls when they first saw Boy's Chorus Line? . . .

Remember how well Mary Tragert, Wayne Guyer, and George Malone (But NOOO . . .) did as our theme stars. Or the originality of Frank Altieri and John Coughlin in all those tie-ins? How about the touching solos of Diane Milley and Kim Jones, and the great 'sax' playing of Larry Panella?

(By now you should be half way thru' that bottle of wine.)

Do you recollect that Don Davis really seemed like Elvis, or for that matter the first time that he swore? How about that Beany Atwood always seems concerned?

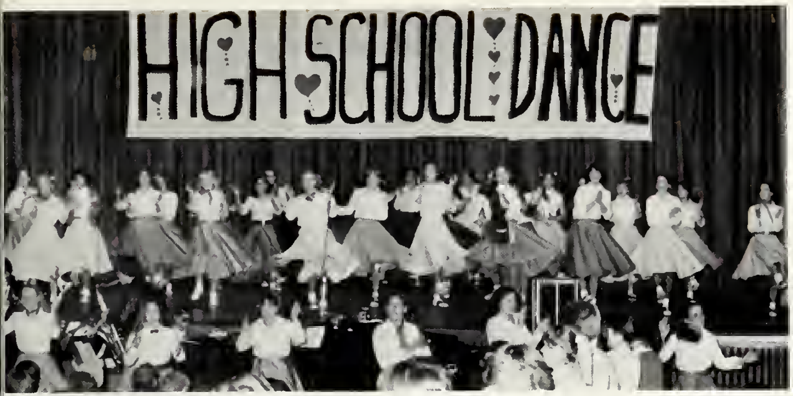
And you must have that memory of those dress rehearsals that lasted all day and well into the night. Or maybe how nervous you were — and how bored you were with your skit. You even thought it stunk! (but people laughed anyways).

Do you recall the fun and the kisses at the party afterwards? Do you recall the partying? Do you recall anything that night? Or that the Frolics was supposed to be so liberal!

Go on . . .
TRY to remember . . .
(You should be done with that bottle of wine now)
WELL . . .
Was it "GOOD TO THE LAST DROP"??!!

"That's my boy!"

"How'd we get so funky?"



"We Go Together" . . . sort of!

"free-reshments!"

"My name's Amelia . . ."

"You're just too sexy."

"All my dreams fulfill . . ."

IF NOT FOR . . .

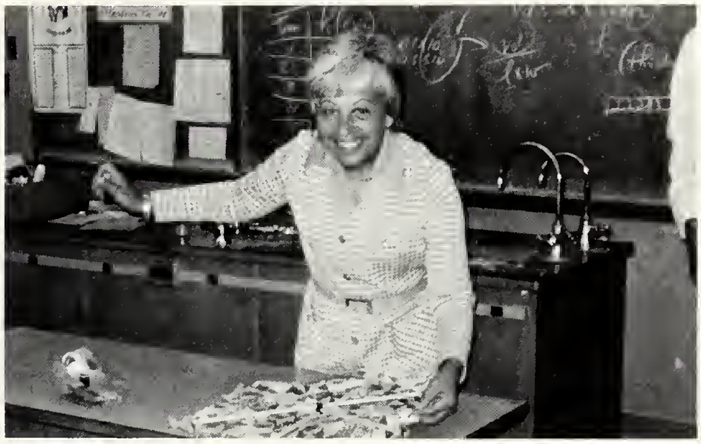
CONGRATULATIONS TO
THE CLASS OF 1979
Dr. and Mrs. George Dyer
Topsfield, M.A.

In Memorium:

Eleanor Margolin was a "true" teacher who loved life and loved people. She taught with her heart as well as her mind. Eleanor's beauty came in her sharing of science and of the fine arts. No matter how immature, impatient, or bright her students were, she always smiled with care and saw goodness.

— Donald Doliber



When I think of Mrs. Woodbridge, all I can think of is the mood she carried with her everywhere she went. When I passed her on the street or in the hall, she'd greet me with a big Hello and her radiant smile always brought one to my face. She was such a good person in the very sense of the word, and when I think of her along with her fun and life-loving characteristics; I think of the fine person she was, and I'm glad I had the opportunity to be touched by her life in the way I was. She will be greatly missed by all that knew her.

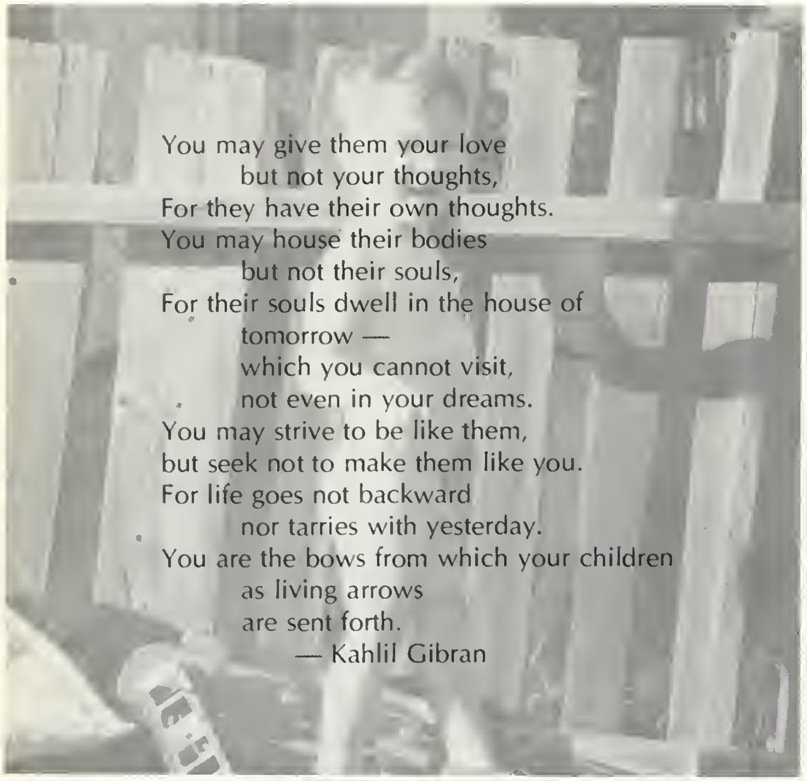
— Nancy Bannon

Jackie Woodbridge

I will remember her as a lady, a lady of many facets; actress, director, teacher, artist, gardner, tennis player, mother, wife. Each facet complimented the others.

— Sally Rose

1979; The Year of the Child



You may give them your love
but not your thoughts,
For they have their own thoughts.
You may house their bodies
but not their souls,
For their souls dwell in the house of tomorrow —
which you cannot visit,
not even in your dreams.
You may strive to be like them,
but seek not to make them like you.
For life goes not backward
nor tarries with yesterday.
You are the bows from which your children as living arrows are sent forth.

Yesterday . . .
Like mintage spent, is past recall;
Its echo dimmed beyond time's wall.

Tomorrow . . .
It never promised earthly man,
Nor does it often fit the plan.

Today . . .
Is gold that covers hills and dell,
And rich are they who use it well.

I do the very best I know how — the very best I can; and I mean to keep doing so until the end. If the end brings me out all right, what is said against me won't amount to anything. If the end brings me out wrong, ten angels swearing I was right would make no difference.

"I do not doubt I am limitless, and that the universes are limitless, in vain I try to think how limitless."

By miracle and mostly hard work, "Skin of our Teeth" was, theatrically speaking, a success. Director Jean Jarvie who "always expects the best" of her actors, got it.

Newcomers to the Masco stage, Katie Simmonds as the obstinate Mrs. Antrobus and Kathy Allen as Sabina played their roles convincingly. Veteran Bruce Murphy was good as Mr. Antrobus, the man of all ages, while Karen Stewart added some unique visual humor as the adolescent Gladts Antrobus. Henry Antrobus also known as Cain, was well portrayed by Glenn Gayton, and Patty Hart did an excellent job as a cynical fortune teller.

The play, after a series of late night rehearsal before the performance, made it to opening night by the "skin of it's teeth". But that is typical for most productions and what counts is not the poor dress rehearsals but rather what is actually presented to the audiences, which was certainly worthy of praise.

"DAMN YANKEES"

On March 16, and 17, the entertaining musical-comedy "Damn Yankees" was presented at Masconomet.

The play tells the story of Joe Boyd (Gary Osgood), an avid baseball fan, who sells his soul to the Devil (John Thompson) in order to become the baseball player, Joe Hardy, played by Chris Bond. Meg Boyd (Patricia Hart) is Joe's despairing wife, whom he ignores as soon as baseball begins. Lola (Kathryn Simmonds), the Devil's provocative assistant is determined to "get whatever she wants."

The show's tremendous success was due to the acting experience of the cast and the work of Miss Jean Jarvie, the show's director. Congratulations are in order to the cast and crew for a job well-done.

Sports

You'll find the road is long and rough, with soft spots far apart, where only those can make the grade who have the uphill heart, And when they stop you with a thud or jolt, you with a crack let courage call the signals as you keep on coming back. Keep coming back, and though the world may romp across your spine, let every game's end find you still upon the battling line: For when the one great scorer comes to make against your name, he writes — not that you won or lost — but how you played the game.

The 1978 varsity soccer team continued a Masconomet tradition by earning the Cape Ann League Championship for the eighth time in nine seasons. This year's crew was one of the finest collections of soccer players ever to wear the red and white stripes. "This is the best team I've ever had," proclaimed coach Lennie Emmons, who guided his Chieftains to an undefeated season (14-0-0), and a number one seed in the Emass soccer tournament. An unfortunate loss in the third overtime period of the opening round was the lone blemish on a brilliant soccer campaign, and erased all aspirations for an Emass championship. FOOTBALL

The 1978 football season looked real promising as new head coach, John Petercuskie, instilled the desire to win and enthusiasm into his squad, but a win never did come to the rookie head coach as Masco's endless losing streak ran to 23 straight.

With a losing team, criticism abounds, with few answers to solve the problem, but a fact still remains. They were not the pits of the league.

To me, high school is not how many games you win, but really how you play the game. Only the very tough, mentally and physically, can go through a season of football, but only the toughest can do it with their backs agains the wall, week after week, and stick with it.

They gave their best, game in and game out, and they could hit with any team in the league which is all a coach could ask for. So, when that final whistle blew, on the cold Thanksgiving afternoon, each senior knew there was no next week . . . or next year. They shook the hands of the opposing team, as they always do after a game, and walked quietly into the locker room.

Once they were in that locker room, they tried to make themselves feel better by saying to themselves it was all over, like coming back home from a war But deep inside there was an emptiness in the pit o their gut, something so intangible, something you couldn't touch, but they knew it was there. They knew it was all over, and that they couldn't reset the hands of time . . . but it was still there.

So, be proud of yourselves, you senior players Yes, you went through the hell of practice; you paid the price that was never to be paid on Saturday. I took a special person to do what you guys wen through . . . and I know the one thing you could hope for is that your former teammates break the streak that has not allowed a single senior to feel the thrill of winning a varsity football game.

VOLLEYBALL

"The loss to North Reading really hurt — In summary the season was short and sweet." — Kim Eddy

That last loss denied Masco of state tournament qualification contrary to past years and finished the season with a 9-5 record. Girls Soccer

For their first year of varsity competition, the Masco girl's soccer team had much to be proud of. The girls carried on the Masco soccer tradition with a winning season of 10-2-2, winning the Cape Ann League title and advancing on to State Competition.

Ironically, our best game was one of the two that we lost. The loss was against top-seeded Foxburo could have gone either way; unfortunately ending in a 2-0 loss.

At this point, we'd like to thank the Boy's soccer team for cheering at a few tough games and giving us much-appreciated support.

The end of the season was met with both regret and optimism; we saw the sudden end of the season in the first round of the State Tournament, but the team still had a lot of talent and potential. Returning next fall will be high scoring Paula Stashis and Kathy Dussault along with next year's captains Kim Healy and Alyson Bolen. Coach Jim Murphy will also be there for another year of hard work and enjoyment.

— Beth and Heidi leave Jane and Paula with memories of our last practice . . . the team with memories of our being elected captains and Coach Murphy with a promise to return and watch some games next season.

— Alyson and Kim are looking forward to a successful season next year.

Kathy is glad her father finally got a girls soccer team at Masco.

"Well girls, it's about time." — Coach Pam Finnigan

From the hot muggy days of August during double sessions to the end of a crisp fall, the entire team had a very clear cut goal in mind. We were going to be the first field hockey team from Masco to qualify for states. Opening with a dramatic overtime win against rival Hamilton-Wenham, we continued onto a winning season. Our losses were infrequent, ending the season with a record of 13-2-4 qualifying us for states. Throughout the season each individual had a certain quality that contributed to our success; everything from flicks to Linguinie's fantastic saves to Brickett's speed.

Our first states game brought a victory over a competitive North Reading team, 1-0 with a superb goal by Laurie Sawyer. Hampered by 3 injuries, we lost a heartbreaking second game; Moe's, but felt the season was still an accomplishment.

"All I can say is we did it!" — Co-captain Deb Fudge.

Memories . . . long double sessions — 15's, pick up grass . . . "Ain't No Way" . . . Friday cross country runs . . . rowdie bus rides and munch outs after our games . . . wasted practices — "the whole lot of you" . . . nine seniors . . . "move those feet" . . . Girls Basketball

What the girl's basketball team lacked in a record this year, they made up for in spirit. The team had some trouble with the new coach, Dave Canan, who didn't seem to know what to expect, and the fact that they didn't always play up to their potential. However, some of the players on both JV and Varsity seemed to always lift the spirits of the others, keeping the bus rides home exciting. Some highlights of the season were the Christmas Tournament in Chelmsford and the strange males who followed the bus, and the player with the wrong color shirt who will never live it down. "These humorous events kept our spirit up, which is the most important part of a team."

— Kris Peachey

Indoor Track

After going 3-4-1 in 1978 the Masconomet Indoor Track team came back with a 8-2 record in 1979. The record, however, does not tell the story of the Chieftain's season. The only two losses came at the beginning of the season, both came down to the relay, and Masco was quickly 0-2. The short losing streak was soon to be broken as the team won their next eight meets with no real struggle. Masco faced four tough teams during that streak but the Chieftains, known for their clutch performances, beat all of them by 20 or more points. When asked about the season past, Coach Larry Gregorchak said, "I wish we could have the beginning of the season all over again, I know we could beat them if we ran against them now."

Basketball

The 1978-79 Masco Basketball season can be summed up in one word: inexperience. With no returning starters and 4 returnees with minimal playing time, the team did not look like a repeat of last year's powerhouse. However, with strong work during the off seasons and a strong team concept, Masco got off to a surprising 5-1 record, including an upset of undefeated Lynnfield. But the Masco Express got derailed by several overtime losses which dropped the record to 10-8 and post-season hopes were gone. The season is over, but the memories of Smooth . . . Rizz, . . . Bird . . . Bear . . . Roach 1 . . . Roach 2 . . . Captain . . . Doctor . . . Miltman . . . Gabby . . . Convict . . . Hampered . . . tape recorder and trashcan will not be forgotten.

Masco's basketball team finished at 11-9 but if the record was measured in good times it would have been 20-0.

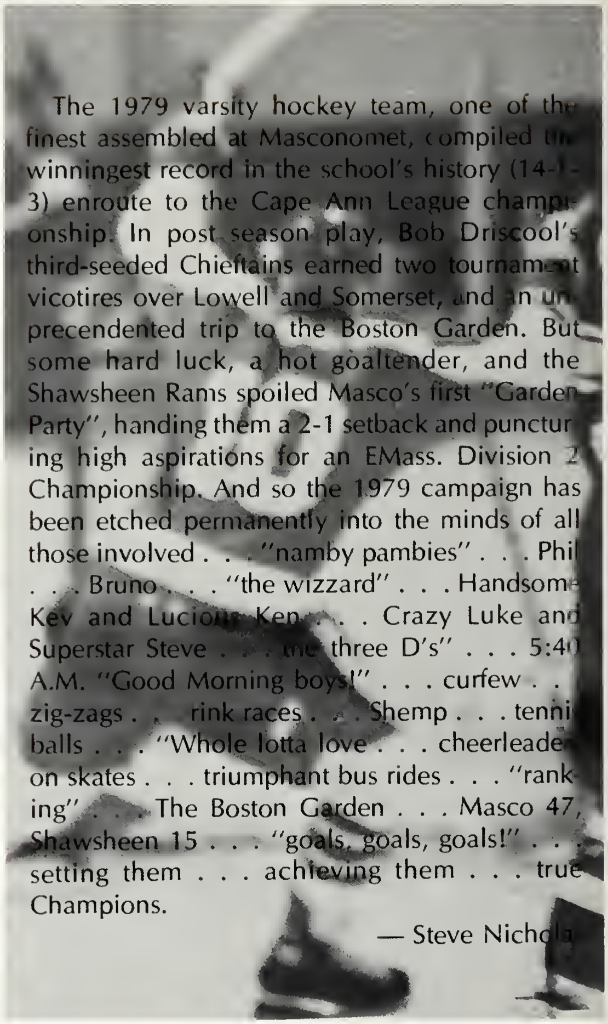
Hockey



The 1979 varsity hockey team, one of the finest assembled at Masconomet, compiled the winningest record in the school's history (14-1-3) enroute to the Cape Ann League championship. In post season play, Bob Driscool's third-seeded Chieftains earned two tournament vicotires over Lowell and Somerset, and an unprecendented trip to the Boston Garden. But some hard luck, a hot goaltender, and the Shawsheen Rams spoiled Masco's first "Garden Party", handing them a 2-1 setback and puncturing high aspirations for an EMass. Division 2 Championship. And so the 1979 campaign has been etched permanently into the minds of all those involved . . . "namby pambies" . . . Phil . . . Bruno . . . "the wizzard" . . . Handsome Kev and Lucious Ken . . . Ski Team

The ski team ended another good season with a 5-2 record. The team finished second place in the Merrimack Valley League with the girls tying for first place with two other teams. State competition was cancelled this year due to lack of snow.

Demonstrating outstanding performances were Chris Merrill, Catherine Price, Jennifer Haseltine for the girls, Matt Andrews and Joe Hansen for the boys. They were led by inspiring captains Tom Price, Jeff Andrews, Heidi Haseltine, and Betsy Brisbois.

Alot of team spirit combined with a successful season made it a very exciting and rewarding year . . . with some special memories . . . Andover and Haverill meets . . . running around the block (ha-ha) . . . Pat's Peak and Bradford practices . . . Stolen skis . . . the crazy, rowdy bus rides, "McDougall, come sit up front" . . . "Hey we won!" . . . munchin after the races . . . racer ready, 5-4-3-2-1-GO! . . . Go for it!

— Capt. Heidi Haseltine

Wrestling

The 1978-1979 Chieftains Wrestling Team, completed this year's season with one of the best records ever. 18-5. In Cape Ann League competition, the team went 7-1, with their only loss going to the 1979 New England Champions, North Andover. The team also took five wrestlers to the State Tournament and managed to take an 8th place out of 64 teams.

Things didn't look too bright for the Chieftains in the beginning. Although 16 prospective wrestlers showed up at the pre-seasson meeting, Coach Dennis Puleo discovered at the first practice that he had one of the most dedicated and hard working teams he has ever had; "We are small in number but we have 16 people who are willing to give everything they have." is the way he described this year's team. There was something else that the boys got out of the season, that will remain with them long after those memories of the grueling practices in the "Sweat Box," a closeness . . . Hog . . . Membrane . . . Load . . . Cone . . .

The three seniors that are leaving this year, Mark Boyle, Jim Hogan, and Nick Consoles, are proud to be part of such a close, winning team and hope that the underclassmen will continue the Chieftain's winning tradition.

Boys' Gymnastics

After three years of disappointing losses, the boys' gymnastic team completed this season winning three of their six meets. In their final meet against Watertown they achieved a commendable score of 87.5 points — the highest in fourteen years. Their success was due greatly to hand work and dedication. The team feels deep appreciation towards Coach Ed Obera and Mr. Plumley for keeping the sport alive. Final recognition should be paid to the Senior boys' who have worked four years and have come such a long way:
Chris Dickson (Captain) — rings, parallel bars, side horse, vaulting.
Bob Bogart — parallel bars, floor exercises, vaulting.
John Coughlin — high bars, rings, parallel bars, vaulting.
Tom Ackerman — high bar, floor exercise, vaulting.

Girls Gymnastics

Although we had tough competition this year, the team improved immensely. The routines became stronger, and scores higher, which made it possible to accomplish a first for Masco — a team score of over 90 in a tri-meet with Lowell and Gloucester.

Freshman Deb Wood was outstanding on the vault and Kim Jones was superb overall. Much of the team's success is due to the new coach Nancy Hennigar who helped us improve our standings.

Gymnastics has become more popular at Masco and we hope that next year brings even more enthusiasm to the team.

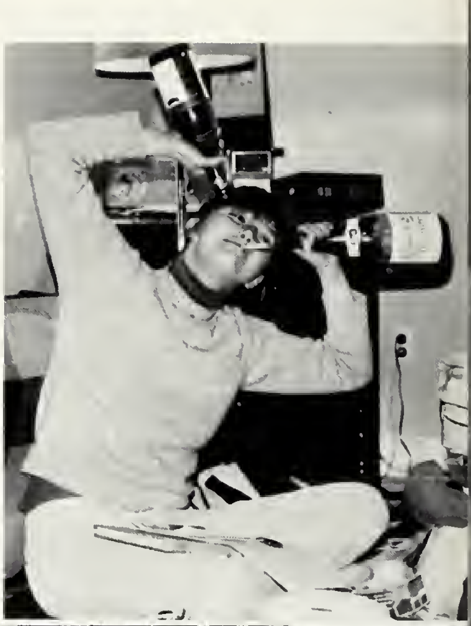
This is it...

On the night previous to our final deadline (which of course we didn't make), we started reminiscing. It was inevitable. ... A day long ago in the spring - going to the Boston Library... looking for a "Yearbook theme"... an instinctive fear ... "Julie, check this out..." "Psst - Kristen, come here"... We won't go into details, because the memories belong to us - (besides, we'd get into trouble.) We'd just like to say some thanks to some special people...



- to all the girls who typed for us
- to the artists who contributed to the Ad pages
- to the parents who understood
- to Paula Sims for remaining calm
- to Evelyn Knobloch for bringing supplies
- to Heidi Haseltine for alphabetizing every ★@!#?@ Senior picture
- to Sally Harvey and Angela Silva for being "the best of what they are"

(HEEHEE)

Oh yeah! Thanks to Mr. Hussey, Mr. Meegan and especially Mrs. D'Amario - for being there.

because we love you

Why can't we get all the people together in the world that we really like and then just stay together — I guess that wouldn't work. Someone would leave. Someone always leaves and then we have to say goodbye. I hate goodbyes. I know what I need. I need more hellos.
